16 77.585 Return adjustments. (1) (a) In this subsection, "bad debt" means the 17 portion of the sales price or purchase price that the seller has reported as taxable 18 under this subchapter and that the seller may claim as a deduction under section 166
19 of the Internal Revenue Code. "Bad debt" does not include financing charges or 20 interest, sales or use taxes imposed on the sales price or purchase price, uncollectible
21 amounts on property that remains in the seller's possession until the full sales price 22 or purchase price is paid, expenses incurred in attempting to collect any debt, debts 23 sold or assigned to 3rd parties for collection, and repossessed property.

24 (b) A seller may claim as a deduction on a return under s. 77.58 the amount of 25 any bad debt that the seller writes off as uncollectible in the seller's books and records

1 and that is eligible to be deducted as bad debt for federal income tax purposes,
2 regardless of whether the seller is required to file a federal income tax return. A 3 seller who claims a deduction under this paragraph shall claim the deduction on the 4 return under s. 77.58 that is submitted for the period in which the seller writes off 5 the amount of the deduction as uncollectible in the seller's books and records and in 6 which such amount is eligible to be deducted as bad debt for federal income tax 7 purposes. If the seller subsequently collects in whole or in part any bad debt for 8 which a deduction is claimed under this paragraph, the seller shall include the 9 amount collected in the return filed for the period in which the amount is collected 10 and shall pay the tax with the return.

11 (c) For purposes of computing a bad debt deduction or reporting a payment 12 received on a previously claimed bad debt, any payment made on a debt or on an 13 account is applied first to the price of the property or service sold, and the 14 proportionate share of the sales tax on that property or service, and then to interest, 15 service charges, and other charges related to the sale.

16 (d) A seller may obtain a refund of the tax collected on any bad debt amount 17 deducted under par. (b) that exceeds the amount of the seller's taxable sales as 18 provided under s. 77.59 (4), except that the period for making a claim as determined 19 under s. 77.59 (4) begins on the date on which the return on which the bad debt could 20 be claimed would have been required to be submitted to the department under s.
21 77.58.

22 (e) If a seller is using a certified service provider, the certified service provider 23 may claim a bad debt deduction under this subsection on the seller's behalf if the 24 seller has not claimed and will not claim the same deduction. A certified service 25 provider who receives a bad debt deduction under this subsection shall credit that

1 deduction to the seller and a certified service provider who receives a refund under 2 this subsection shall submit that refund to the seller.

3 (f) If a bad debt relates to the retail sales of tangible personal property or 4 taxable services that occurred in this state and in one or more other states, as 5 determined under s. 77.522, the total amount of such bad debt shall be apportioned 6 among the states in which the underlying sales occurred in a manner prescribed by 7 the department to arrive at the amount of the deduction under par. (b).

8 (2) If a lessor of tangible personal property has reimbursed the vendor for the 9 sales tax on the sale of the property by the vendor to the lessor, the tax due from the 10 lessor on the rental receipts may be offset by a credit equal to the tax otherwise due 11 on the rental receipts from the property for the reporting period. The credit shall 12 expire when the cumulative rental receipts equal the sales price upon which the 13 vendor paid sales taxes to this state.

14 (3) If a purchaser of tangible personal property has reimbursed the vendor of 15 the property for the sales tax on the sale and subsequently, before making any use 16 of the property other than retention, demonstration, or display while holding it for 17 sale or rental, makes a taxable sale of the property, the tax due on the taxable sale 18 may be offset by the tax reimbursed.

19 (4) A seller may claim a deduction on any part of the sales price or purchase 20 price that the seller refunds in cash or credit as a result of returned property or 21 adjustments in the sales price or purchase price after the sale has been completed, 22 if the seller has included the refunded price in a prior return made by the seller and 23 has paid the tax on such price, and if the seller has returned to the purchaser in cash 24 or in credit all tax previously paid by the purchaser on the amount of the refund at

(Note to Joe - from old 77.59(1)(b) 2nd sentence.)
(5) No reduction in the amount of tax payable by the retailer is allowable in the event property sold on credit is repossessed except where the entire consideration paid by the purchaser is refunded to the purchaser at the time of the purchase. A deduction under this paragraph shall be claimed on the return for the period in which the refund is paid.

77.59 (9) If any person fails to file a return, the department shall make an estimate of the amount of the ~~gross receipts~~ sales price of the ~~person~~ person's sales, or, as the case may be, of the amount of the total sales purchase price of tangible personal property or taxable service sold or purchased by the person, the sale by or the storage, use or other consumption of which in this state is subject to sales or use tax. The estimate shall be made for the period in respect to which the person failed to make a return and shall be based upon any information which is in the department's possession or may come into its possession. Upon the basis of this estimate the department shall compute and determine the amount required to be paid to the state, adding to the sum thus arrived at a penalty equal to 25% thereof. One or more such determinations may be made for one or for more than one period. When a business is discontinued a determination may be made at any time thereafter, within the periods specified in sub. (3), as to liability arising out of that business.

SECTION 156. 77.59 (9n) of the statutes is created to read:

77.59 (9n) No seller or certified service provider is liable for any deficiency or refund under this subchapter that is the result of the seller or certified service

7 property under this subchapter is erroneous, the customer may request that the 8 seller correct the alleged error by sending a written notice to the seller. The notice 9 shall include a description of the alleged error and any other information that the 10 seller reasonably requires to process the request. Within 60 days from the date that 11 a seller receives a request under this paragraph, the seller shall review its records
12 to determine the validity of the customer's claim. If the review indicates that there 13 is no error as alleged, the seller shall explain the findings of the review in writing to 14 the customer. If the review indicates that there is an error as alleged, the seller shall 15 correct the error and shall refund the amount of any tax collected erroneously, along 16 with the related interest, as a result of the error from the customer, consistent with 17 s. 77.59 (4). A customer may take no other action, or commence any action, to correct

19 that is not subject to 4 USC 116 to 126, as amended by P.L. 106-252, or tangible
